DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected because the drawings all show capacitor symbols, which are disclosed as being “voltage sources”. Thus, the drawing should show proper symbols for the “voltage sources”. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The specification fails to adequately disclose the operation of the circuit. Figure 4, (similarly as Figs. 1, 2 and 5) shows sensor 46 being connected to driver 44. However, nowhere is the specification found to disclose exactly what affect element 46 has on driver 44. Without knowing how sensor 46 affects driver 44, it is not seen that one skilled in the art can make and use the invention.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. Driver 44 is deemed critical or essential to the practice of the invention, but is not included in the claim(s). An arrangement lacking this feature is not enabled by the disclosure since it cannot be understood from the specification how the circuit will operate without such. In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976).

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is not understood how the circuit can control “power” when there has been no means recited to control the “power device” nor has there been an input recited. In lines 6-7, it is not understood how the circuit can have the recited operation when there has been nothing recited to operate the “power device”.

Claims 2-8 are rejected for the reasons discussed above with claim 1.

Claims 9-17 are rejected for similar reasons as discussed above with claims 1-8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by Kimura et al. (USPN 5,210,479). Kimura et al. discloses, in Fig. 1, a circuit comprising: “a power device (10)”; “sensing circuitry (14 and 20)”; “a gating device (12)”; and “correction circuitry (remainder of circuit)”, all connected and operating similarly as recited by Applicant.
